

It has come to my attention that there is an effort in progress to limit the ability of Satellite Radio to provide information to it's subscribers. It would seem to me that satellite radio provides a valuable service to it's subscribers and should not be subject to the whims of the NAB and their anti-technology positions. I strongly urge you to reject the NAB Petition 04-160.